By an Officer, who arrived last Night from Warsaw, there is Advice, that by this Time the whole Russian Army have passed the Vistula, one Column at Pulawy, the other at Gouva. Two of the Russian Generals told the said Officer, that the whole Army was to be at Cracow before the 20th Instant. From Cracow to Bilitz in Silesia there are not above four or five Days March.

Berlin, May 1, N. S. Yesterday arrived here the Honourable Henry Legg, Esq; his Britannick Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to this Court, and this Day had an Audience of his Prussian Majesty, and delivered his Credentials.

Liege, May 1, N. S. The Pontoons sent from hence Yesterday to the French are not arrived, seven Carts being broke down in the Roads, and the rest so fast stuck, that they must send to the Camp for the Artillery Horses to draw them out. In this Situation they have sent an Express to demand 30 Carpenters to work on their Boats, without which they cannot repair their Bridges.

Hague, May 7, N. S. An Express arrived here early last Sunday Morning from the Prince of Orange, with the News that Preliminaries were signed at Aix on the 30th of last Month. The States General were immediately assembled and acquainted with this important News; the Preliminaries however have not yet been laid before them; but it is said that the Prince of Orange intends to do it himself the Day after To-morrow, and that his Highness is to return on Purpose to the Hague.

The 3d Instant, about 14° 39′ W. Longitude from the Start, Capt. Haddock bore down towards a Sail seen to Leeward, and at Nine in the Evening came up with her, and after changing two or three Broadsides with his upper Deck Guns, (it blowing so fresh that his lower Deck Ports could not be opened) and several Vollies of Small-Arms, the Chase struck, and proved to be the Neptune Privateer of Bayonne, of 20 Guns 8 Pounders, and 210 Men. In the Action the Advice had three Men killed and five wounded; and the Privateer had eight killed and fifteen wounded.
